PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, our hope of glory,
You are the fulfillment of the Father's plan to save all humanity.
You are the mystery hidden from the ages
and from the generations past, now manifested to us.
You abide in your Church
and in the most holy sacrament of the Eucharist.

As we celebrate the Holy Eucharist and receive your Body and Blood, grant us the awareness that your presence in us urges us to continue your saving mission in the world.

Send us your Holy Spirit, that He may lead us
to walk humbly
with the poor and the marginalized, in the company of Mary,
your most holy mother and ours.

O Lord in the the Most Blessed Sacrament,
To you be all honor and glory and praise
In the unity of the Father and the Holy Spirit
One God, forever and ever. Amen.

On June 17, 2012, the last day of the International Eucharistic Congress in Dublin, Ireland, Pope Benedict XVI announced that the 51st International Eucharistic Congress in 2016 will be held in

Cebu City, Philippines

What is a Eucharistic Congress?

A Eucharistic Congress is an international gathering of people which aims to:

1. Promote an awareness of the central place of the Eucharist in the life and mission of the Catholic Church;
2. Help and improve our understanding and celebration of the liturgy;
3. Draw attention to the social dimension of the Eucharist.

The Congress normally takes place every four years.

The daily celebration of the Eucharist is at the very heart of the Congress. The wider program of the Congress includes other liturgical celebrations, cultural events, catecheses, testimonies, and workshops during the week of the Congress.

Origin of the Eucharistic Congress

St. Peter Julian-Eymard

The work of the International Eucharistic Congress began in France in 1881 as a fruit of the Eucharistic apostolate of Saint Peter-Julian Eymard, "the Apostle of the Eucharist" and of other outstanding figures such as:

Blessed Antoine Chevier

Antoine Chevier was a French priest of the nineteenth century. He is the founder of the Work of the Prado, a clerical school.

Leon Dupont

He is known as "The Holy Man of Tours," or the "Apostle of the Holy Face." He helped spread various Catholic devotions such as that of the Holy Face of Jesus and the nightly Eucharistic adoration. He was declared Venerable by the Holy See during Pope Pius XII's pontificate and currently awaits beatification.

Emilie Tamisier

She first proposed the idea of rendering public homage and veneration to the Blessed Sacrament under the form and name of the International Eucharistic Congress.
